

Judge Hohman earns award for service to group

Monroe County Probate Judge John A. Hohman Jr. recently received an award from the Michigan Probate Judges Association.

The award is in recognition for having served as president of the association from Oct. 1, 2008, through Sept. 30.

Judge Hohman actively is involved in the community and has made numerous contributions through local organizations and projects.

Some of his contributions include contributing writer to the State of Michigan Civil Model Jury Instructions, chairman-elect for the Judicial Conference, member of the Juvenile Law Committee and editor of the Advisory Committee L-GAL Protocol as well as the Michigan Probate Bench Book.
